Reason

These engagingly written mystery novels will appeal to readers who like ensemble casts as a group of elderly neighbors works together to solve a murder in both books. -- Basia Wilson

Description

When Agnes and the other inhabitants of Sunset Hall, a house share for the old and unruly in the sleepy English countryside, investigate the murder of their neighbor while covering up another, they step out of their comfort zone to tangle with inept criminals, the local authorities and their own dark secrets.

*/* Starred Review */* A murder on Boxing Day strikes close to home for the Thursday Murder Club. Antiques dealer Kuldes Sharma knows some of his transactions are shady, including his purchase of a box, contents unknown, that he's warned not to open. He suspects his shop has become a drop-off for drugs. Following Kuldes's murder, the box and its contents, which turn out to be heroin, go missing. The local police are thrown off the case so a national force can search for the killer and the drugs. Meanwhile, a local dealer is frantically looking for the box too. Thankfully, the four senior sleuths from Coopers Chase are already on the job. Kuldes was involv...

Reason

Celebrated Canadian author-illustrators of children's picture books, Melanie Watt and Jon Klassen write -- and draw -- witty stories featuring oddball characters. Klassen's artwork tends to be muted whereas Watt's books are cheery and colorful, but both styles are equally encouraging of energetic participation in a read-aloud setting. -- Catherine Coles

Description

Award-winning Canadian author and illustrator Melanie Watt writes humorous picture books for children. Her stories feature bright, whimsical illustrations and a wide array of quirky characters, most of whom tend to be neurotic animals experiencing all-too-human emotions. From her endearingly anxious Scaredy Squirrel to her

Your farm

Klassen, Jon • Feb 2025

With a minimal tableau of familiar objects and a gentle rhythm suited for reading aloud, a farm and all its items—a horse and its hay, a truck, a stool, a fence—are assembled, ending with bedtime as the sun goes down. This is a farm for a young...

Conduct your search. At your Result list:

- Add an Individual Item – Open the three-dot menu next to the item and select Add to Project.
- Add Multiple Items – Click the checkboxes next to each item you want to store, then click the Add to Project icon.

The screenshot shows the NoveList Plus interface. At the top left is the NoveList Plus logo. A search bar contains the text "GX Book Club Best Bets". Below the search bar are filters: "All filters (5)", "Past 12 months", and "Books, Books". A "Natural language" toggle is also present. On the left is a navigation menu with categories like "Discover NoveList", "Curated Lists", "Quick Links", "Articles", "Audiobooks", "Award winners", "Book club best bets", "Genre guides", "Media mentions", "Series", "How do I?", and "My dashboard". The main content area shows search results for "THE GOD OF THE WOODS" by LIZ MOORE. A modal window titled "Add to project" is open, showing "3 items" and a dropdown menu labeled "Choose a project". A red arrow points to the dropdown menu. The modal also has "Cancel" and "Add now" buttons.

Open the Choose a project menu and select an existing project or start a new one.

Click Add now to add the item(s).
